

Oklahoma Leather Association Power Exchange Contest

All contestants must read and understand the qualifications for being a contestant.

The following are the rules for qualification and what is expected of the contestants

1. You must be at least twenty-one years old.
2. You must be available for March 7th Social and March 8th contest.
3. This contest is open to any pair/poly/triad that's in a "power exchange" relationship for at least one year.
4. You must complete your required paperwork as outlined in the "Contestant Checklist" by the deadline
5. You must be able to communicate and teach others about your specific power exchange dynamic.
6. You are not permitted to be under the influence of illegal drugs or an excessive amount of alcohol during any of the contest portions.
7. You cannot have a current title that conflicts with the Scissortail PE contest or with the rules of your current title. If you hold a current title, contact the Scissortail PE contest director immediately to find out if you are still eligible to compete in the Scissortail PE contest.
8. You must agree to be photographed and allow the photographs to be used on the Scissortail Leather Contest and Midwest Power Exchange website and social media. If not possible, state the reasons why in your application.

9. You will be expected to always wear contestant numbers until the end of the contest. These will be provided at the contestant meeting before the Meet and Greet.
10. You must not have any outstanding warrants either nationally or internationally and you must not be currently under indictment in any court of law.
11. If you win, you will agree to present at least 4 (four) workshops, classes, or demos to teach others about your specific dynamic at 4 (four) different national events during your title year.
12. If you win, you will agree to return to the Oklahoma Leather Association Scissortail Power Exchange Contest the following year to welcome/stepdown to the next contestants.
